Halloween Costumes For Your Pet

Now man's best friend can run faster than a speeding bullet and leap tall buildings in a single bound.

What a cute little Devil you are!

That's not a hairball, your cat is trying to learn to breath fire!

On The Lighter Side!

Rules For Dog Owners

I will not complain "My arm is tired" after only throwing the ball 20 times.

I will not confuse my dog by throwing snowballs for him to fetch.

I will not ask my dog to play fetch with a boomerang.

I will drop whatever I'm doing and take my dog out as soon as he asks me to.

I will not stare while my dog is doing his business.

I will not feed the cat before I feed my dog.

I will get rid of that cat.

I will not bring home any more cats.

I will set up the kiddie pool every day it's hot – even in December.

I will allow my dog on the couch.

I will not hide my dog's ball in a place where I know he couldn't possibly retrieve it from and then ask him to go get it.

I will not sneak around the backyard wearing funny clothes to test whether my dog is a good watchdog.

I will not abandon my dog for trivial reasons like "going to work."

I will not wake my dog when I come home from work.

I will not come home from work and feel the sofa to see if it is still warm from where my dog was sleeping "illegally."

I will not run out of treats.
